Our 100% Cotton Pillow comes in three different thread counts - 200, 233, and 300. These thread counts are carefully selected to provide the right balance between softness and durability. Choose a lower thread count if you prefer a softer pillow or a higher thread count if you're looking for a more durable and supportive pillow.

The closure type of our pillow can be customized to your preference. You can choose between a zipper, button, or open closure type. This feature ensures that you can easily access the pillow's filling for cleaning or adjustment purposes.

This pillow provides medium to high support, making it perfect for people who prefer pillows that are not too firm or too soft. It is ideal for those who sleep on their back or side. The pillow's solid construction ensures that it maintains its shape and support even with regular use.

The durability of our 100% Cotton Pillow varies between low, medium, and high, depending on the thread count. The lower thread count provides a softer and less durable pillow, while the higher thread count offers a more durable and supportive pillow.
